

Visa & passport consultants

Disclaimer

A2Z Visas bears no responsibility for loss, delays or non-issuance of any application arising from or in connection with (to include but not restricted to) incomplete application forms, incorrectly or falsely completed application forms, inaccurate or incomplete supporting documentation, acts of God, weather conditions, acts of public enemies, strikes, acts or omissions by public authorities, technical difficulties at the Embassies or Royal Mail\ DHL delays.

Tracking numbers will be provided for delivery from office.

We take no responsibility if the Embassy delays the visa due to system problems or requiring more time for processing the application. Applicants should not be pre-book flights, until the visa is issued by the Embassy.

Passports and other valuable documents will be returned by Special Delivery (within the UK) to ensure their safety. A2Z Visas accepts no liability for consequential loss or delay. It is advisable that the Customer also sends the passports and valuable documents by Special Delivery and retains the receipts.

A2Z Visas requires full payment before any process. A2Z Visas reserves the right to retain clients' documents and passports after the documents have been returned from the Embassies until full payment has been received by us.

Please print your name and sign if you are agree with the above.

Date:

Customer Name:

Customer signature: